

SINGING STRINGS CAMP

Aug 27 – 29, 2018

Park Royal United Church, Charlottetown

Mark the beginning of the last week of August on your calendar for our annual Singing Strings day camp program from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Park Royal United Church.

For those students who are new to the Singing Strings Camp: we start each year with a ‘boot camp’ to raise our level of playing and prepare for more advanced work starting in September. We have group classes, orchestra rehearsals, as well as sectionals, master classes, and chamber music. Faculty will include our regular conductors Natalie, Jen, Wendy, and Sue, as well as guest teachers.

This year we will be offering a Pre-Junior program again for students who are not ready for orchestra, but have started a string instrument before camp. It will run for 3 days in the afternoons (1-5 p.m.), and tuition is $75.

All three levels of orchestra, Junior, Intermediate, and Senior, will have a full day program for 3 days, tuition $150. This fee includes instruction and music, and the schedule will also include some recreational activities.

A completed registration form with a non-refundable deposit of $50 ($25.00 for the Pre-Junior program) is due by August 1st in order for us to have music and staffing in place for the camp. Jen will be at Park Royal from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. on August 1 to collect deposits and issue receipts. Balance is due on the first day of camp. Scholarships are available for a small number of students who make a request through submitting a letter to the Singing Strings stating their need.
