

SINGING STRINGS ORIENTATION CAMP Aug 26-28, 2019

Park Royal United Church, 11 Christie Drive, Charlottetown

After the success of our day camps these last few years, we are continuing with a day camp at Park Royal United Church this summer. As in previous years, we are offering tuition for all ages and stages on violin, viola, cello, bass and orchestra. There will be an all day camp for the Junior/Intermediate/Senior orchestra members and a morning camp for any Pre-Junior participants.

For those students who are new to the Singing Strings: we start each year with a 'boot camp' to raise our level of playing and to prepare for more advanced work starting in September. We have group classes, orchestra rehearsals as well as sectionals, choir, art and master classes. Faculty will include our regular conductors Natalie, Jen, Wendy and Sue, and several visiting teachers, including the returning Buffy Andrews, Singing Strings alumni violinist Adrian Irvine as well as violinist Jamie Godber.

The fee for the 3 day camp is $150 ($50 per day) for Junior/Intermediate/Senior. The fee for the Pre-Junior morning camp is $75.00 ($25.00 per day). Both camp fees include tuition, music and recreational activities. A deposit of $40.00 is required by August 1st in order for us to have music and staffing in place for the camp. The deposit is non-refundable and the balance of the fee will be due on the first day of camp. Scholarships are available for a small number of students who make a request via submitting a letter to the Singing Strings stating their need.
